

SOUTH SUDAN

Meeting with Ambassador James Morgan, Deputy Head of Mission of the Embassy of South Sudan in New Delhi 5th February 2014

Ambassador James Morgan had heard about INDIAFRICA but was not very conversant about our activities and outreach. He was pleased to know about our initiative and inquired about South Sudan's participation in the last 2 Editions.

When asked how to reach out to the youth and young professionals in South Sudan to drive maximum participation, he gave us valid suggestion to get in touch with the people on ground there. He provided us with the contact of a person working with the Chambers of Commerce in South Sudan who could help us get in touch with Universities and Businesses in South Sudan.
