Young Visionaries Bootcamp

The Young Visionaries Fellowship programme identifies promising young entrepreneurs from India and Africa and offers them opportunities for growth and collaboration. The 6-day workshop held at ISB Hyderabad comprised of sessions by accomplished academicians, consultants and successful entrepreneurs.

“The market and business conditions in India are very similar to those in Africa and there is much to learn here.” This is how Hilda Moraa Morara, an entrepreneur from Kenya, feels after spending about a week at the Indian School of Business here. She is one of a six-member team of African entrepreneurs who came to the ISB for mentoring as part of the IndiaAfrica Young Visionaries Fellowship.

The African team, along with six Indian entrepreneurs who also have got the fellowship, toured Hyderabad, Delhi, Jaipur and Agra. Fasili M. Boniphace, a management graduate who recently founded EBI Consulting Ltd in Tanzania, liked the welcoming attitude to entrepreneurship in India. According to Krishna Tanuku, Executive Director, Wadhvani Centre for Entrepreneurship Development, ISB, the team was given both theoretical and practical training. Visits to businesses and sessions by industry experts gave the participants an almost hands-on experience.

The Indian members of the team will soon head to Africa.
